CREAM OF NEWS.

Ben Jones' Lecture.

Mr. Jones' lecture on "God There and God Here" was heard by fully 600 people at the Opera House Wednesday night. There was not much that was new to those who heard him, but the lecture was about his life. Many of his best sayings are heard in his lecture and the people are interested in the opportunity to applaud, despite the fact that the lecture is in the church service. Mr. Jones spoke for nearly two hours.

Good Prices Still Prevail.

Two hundred bushels of tobacco were sold at the Exchange Warehouse dry and prices were very satisfactory to both buyers and sellers. Prices on corn and wheat are the same as last week and that grade is quoted firm with fair offerings. There is a decided advance in prices of lugs and many grades are cleared. Receipts for the week amount to over a thousand bushels and sales for the same period amount to about the same number. Receipts for week ending Wednesday, about 300 bushels. Our market has fairly opened and our sales will increase with each week as receipts improve.

Working—Circleville People.

Not long ago a man about 55 years old giving his name as J. M. Hawkins, came here from Dayton, Ohio, to be a proprietor of a new business. He had been in business for some time in his native land and had a good record. He had been in business for some time in his native land and had a good record. Chas. Johnson, who has charged with the murder of Policeman Cox, of Lexington, on last Christmas eve, has been arrested and is now behind bars. Ex-Sheriff Perkins, of Caldwell county, made the arrest in Princeton Monday.

In the prison which was made in last issue, we were in error in stating that Judge Morrow sustained the action of the circuit court in refusing to grant a writ of habeas corpus to a man named Johnson. It is the opinion that he had no jurisdiction in the matter and the man will be heard before Judge Grace Monday.

An Auburn lion in the Russellville Herald says: "Mr. Jake Hunt, while cleaning a hot bed, unearthed a half bag of cash, containing 187 wafers of various denominations. This is the first such story of money and coming to light from a local source which can doubt its authenticity."

Mr. R. W. Brown's head of horses to be sold at Williamson's stable on Monday has arrived. They are a smooth skin lot of animals and are of the best quality usually brought from the West. Mr. Brown has sold them here before and in will be a good thing for the people who are interested in the horse market.

Miss M. L. Lavelle, who is visiting here, is a very pretty girl. She is a student at the University of Kentucky and is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. She is a very popular girl and is very well liked by the people here.
